OLYMPIC WAY SWIMMING LESSONS

- Beacon Hill Pool will continue teaching the Olympic Way lessons instead of the Red Cross program.
- Please see separate attachment for explanation of the different Olympic Way levels before indicating the level for your child (available as an attachment with the registration email, online from our website or upon request).
- Each child may pre-register for 3 day time sessions or 1 evening session. Space permitting, you may register for 1 additional session (day or evening). Please check with lifeguards prior to session for availability. Refer to “Important dates” for sessions dates.
- Note: Change from 2016: Evening lessons will be on Tuesday and Thursday (i.e twice a week) for 4 weeks. Registration at the pool is space permitting only.
Please remember to record which sessions you chose

OTHER PROGRAMS

- Mom’s and tots, water polo, synchro and diving lessons are held during morning lessons and are open to anyone who wants to attend. Pre-registration is not required.
- Eligible teens can sign up for Bronze Medallion and Bronze Cross classes, Tuesday’s 6-9pm (please note that there is an additional fee for these courses).
- Adults can attend aqua-fit held during morning lessons (check the lesson board for a time) and can attend stroke improvement/master conditioning workouts (Tuesday, Thursday 8-9pm and Saturdays 5-6pm). Pre-registration not required.

TEAMS

- Please get more information about swim team, water polo, diving and synchronized swimming at the pool.
